

rimming him, Tom continuing to play with his cock, his asshole quivering at the touch of the tongue trying to enter him and the resultant tightening as he stroked his meat in his hand.

His asshole now wet with Gene's saliva, and Gene having turned him over on his back, Al slipped his body behind Tom and pulled Tom's wet asshole down onto his upright cock, saying "One good turn deserves another." His hand reached around and took his lover's cock in it, and Gene began to play with Tom's nipples. When he first touched them Tom inhaled deeply and Gene, seeing that this was a turn-on for Tom, applied more pressure to the little buttons. They became erect after a while, their hardness a sign of his obvious excitement. Gene went down on the cock being stroked by Al and licked and tongued the mushroom like head, teasing the crown and running his tongue into the slit, which had become wet with pre-seminal juices from the prodding his asshole was receiving.

Tom turned his head around so that he could kiss Al and for a while they froze in this position, savoring their varied erotic sensations.

Al pulled out of Tom and Gene, not wasting a moment, pulled his mouth up off of Tom's cock and went down on Al, tasting the wetness from Tom's asshole. Tom took Gene's cock in his mouth, and Al took Tom's cock into his mouth. In this way, the three of them participated in a daisy-chain of sucking each others' cocks. Slurping and smacking sounds filled the room as the three of them lapped and sucked on the hard poles in their mouths. Their throats open as wide as they could to take the male meat as far down as they were able.

While they were sucking, Gene began to finger Tom's asshole. He could feel Tom's excitement at having his lover suck his cock, because the prostate was growing and growing and his asshole was getting tighter and tighter.

From the prodding on his asshole, Tom began to work his hardness faster and faster into Al's mouth, and at the same time, he began to moan, the vibrations of which reverberated onto Gene's own dick.

it was all too much for him, as his prostate swelled and forced his cum to eject out of his cock, shooting deep into Al's open throat. At this, Gene began to suck harder on Al's cock and Tom felt the first hot spurts of Gene's own arousal shoot into his mouth. Tom hadn't cum yet that night, and the effect of watching the two of them added to that fact, his load kept cumming and cumming. He tried to swallow it all as fast as he could but it was impossible. The cum ran back out of his mouth, down his chin and onto the shaft plunging into his face, running in little rivulets down over his balls and between his legs.

The three of them, spent, lay back and kissed each other, tasting of their respective loads. They felt of each others' bodies, gently running their fingers over each other, finding niches and crannies missed previously. Their tongues began to follow where their fingers had been and before long they found they were once again aroused by the excitement and feelings of the moment.

They began again, different positions, different angles, until they were completely exhausted, filled with cum and emptied of it in every possible way.

and placed his cock at the entrance to the hot hole. Meanwhile Al took Gene's cock in his hand and began to stroke it, feeling its thickness in his fist. Fantasizing that it was this very cock in his hand that was penetrating his asshole, he became very excited and lifted his hips to envelop Tom's cock as Tom pushed his hips downwards to enter his lover's asshole.

"Wish I were you," Gene said to Al, who's hips were now moving up and down rapidly, as his asshole was being screwed.

"Maybe you will . . . maybe you will," Tom said, winking at Gene.

Not long after Tom pulled his cock out of Al's asshole because he was becoming too excited. "Gotta take it easy. Too hot," he said.

Al turned over, still stroking Gene's cock, and Tom and he began to mutually jack each others' cocks off, stroking their massive organs with slow, long strokes, their palms sliding back and forth over the flushed heads. While they continued to do this, Gene moved around behind Tom and began
